

AGRIBUSINESS LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

Triangle Cooperative Service Company and the Oklahoma Agricultural Cooperative Council are excited to begin accepting applications for Class II of the Agribusiness Leadership Academy. This program is a great opportunity for emerging agribusiness professionals to develop the necessary skills to lead a successful agribusiness. Participants will be taught rigorous course work in accounting, leadership, business management, advocacy and human resources. They will have an open forum and discussion with a panel of retired general managers and current board chairs. The students will graduate from ALA with the proper skills to be excellent leaders in the agribusiness industry.
